

I have a 9-year-old daughter. We do not choose to watch violent shows on t.v. in our home. However, even when watching "American Idol" we have to duck under the covers and have loud conversations to block out the commercials advertising violent shows. Just the commercials are enough to incite nightmares!